Edition 2018/3

We're sure you're all looking forward to some warmer weather so why not kick off May with a visit to our Beer and Cider Festival which runs for 4 days over the Bank Holiday weekend. We have a great selection of local beers and ciders, still very reasonably priced at £3.00 pint (£1.50 half) - but remember, the beers and ciders are subject to availability – when they're gone, they're gone! For those who prefer a glass of wine, bring along the discount voucher (below) for some great deals on wine and prosecco. Our pub menu will be available every day during the Festival except Sunday, when we will of course be offering our usual great Roast menu. There will also be plenty of Live Music so it should be a really fun weekend.

Meanwhile we continue to offer our great value Steak Night every Tuesday and will be hosting a Tapas Theme Night on May 24th and a Burger Theme Night on June 28th. Don't forget to book early for these as they sell out quickly!

Thank you for your continued custom.

Challenge The Chef

Inaugural Event
Sunday 6th May @ 18.00

The customers will decide.....!

We are delighted to announce our inaugural 'Challenge the Chef' evening

If you'd like this to become a regular event, just let Head Chef Chris know what dish you would like to challenge, and agree the date

On the night, customers pay £2 to have a small dish of both the Chef's and the Challenger's offerings – then select their favourite. And the winner is.....

THE OLD PUB SIGN IS COMING BACK!

A professional pub sign maker in Bristol is recreating the much-loved old pub sign showing a portrait of Elizabeth I on one side and the "Royal Progress" on the other. We expect to hang it in April/May after a talk on the history and origin of the sign and will also have another copy framed inside the pub for closer inspection. Thank you to everyone who donated the £600 needed to make it possible. Further donations welcome.
